

The Chase Monson Co.

Sale of Silks

Our east window blossomed out Saturday morning with a beautiful lot of Dresden and Satin Stripe SILKS, at 69c a yard.

You'll recognize them quickly as $1.00 value. Also you'll need to a quick to secure choice.

Sale of Silks

At the silk counter another lot of Fancy Silks in Taffetas, Satins, Plisses and Armures; all got together to be sold at $1.00 a yard.

Hard to buy them elsewhere under $1.25 or $1.50.

We would rather measure them for you than measure them for inventory.

Sale of Silks

Another lot of Stripe and Check Taffetas and Black Brocade Satins. To be sold at 69c a yard.

Hundreds of yards of them sold at $1.00 a yard.

Sale of Silks

We intend this sale to continue until Saturday night. May not talk about it every day, but we expect to sell this week 10,000 yards of Silks at the reduced prices.

The annual ball of Aurora, N. 2, Patriarchs Militant, L. O. E. F., will be given on Wednesday evening, January 1, at Harugari hall, on Crown street. The music will be furnished by the Philharmonic orchestra and J. B. Freysinger will prompt.

On New Year's eve, at Harmonie hall, the Subscription club will give the first of their series of dances to be given this season. The affair promises to be quite a success. Strauss' orchestra in accordance with his usual custom. Alderman James H. MacDonald will keep open house New Year's from 8 a. m. to 11 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to be present.

The will of the late Professor John N. Barlett of New Britain was admitted to probate Saturday. The will was drawn June 21, 1894, and was witnessed by John H. Peck, Sarah E. Peck and Henry W. Peck. The testator leaves his property to his children, share and share alike, and his son, John P. Barlett, formerly of New Haven, is appointed executor.

Miss Alice Mabel Warner of New Haven, who will furnish the entertainment the second night of the Mechanics' fair in Berlin, will recite, during Entertainments.

HYPERION.
The New Year's attraction will be "Charley's Aunt," presented by the original New York company under the management of Charles Frohman. The extraordinary triumph of the farce is due to the fact that it deals in genuine fun and is a novel and clever use of the expedients to which comedy writers usually resort. "Charley's Aunt" is sold enjoyment from beginning to end. It has been spoken of as a successor to "The Private Secretary," but it is claimed to be much funnier than that piece, and has features that interest more deeply and take a firmer hold of the public's heart.

The author of "Charley's Aunt" is Brandon Thomas, whose admirable acting made him popular when he was in this country with Rosina Vokes. Sale of seats now open.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

That our theater-goers may thoroughly enjoy themselves this New Year's week it is requisite that amusements of the highest class should be prepared to successfully carry out this design.

With the immense facilities at his command to select the best and greatest productions for his theater, Mr. Bunell is enabled to give his patrons attractions of the highest grade, and for his New Year's attraction at the Grand opera house he has secured Whallen and Martelli's great production, "South Before the War," which is probably the truest picture of southern darky life now presented on the stage. It is thoroughly realistic and should be enjoyed by those who delight in old southern plantation festivities. The old time darky is truly depicted, his sorrows, his joys, his love and merry-making. Through it all there runs a story of deep romantic interest, and the whole is intensely picturesque and enjoyable. The play is presented with the strong cast of capable players, and during its action a host of specialties are introduced fully in keeping with the spirit of the drama. The dancing, the cake walk, the landing of the steamboat and the camp meeting are striking triumphs of realistic stage art. While most of the company to the number of fifty or more are composed of colored people, all of the leading parts are played by competent artists.

There will be a parade given daily by the famous pickaninny band which is with this company, who will also give a concert in front of the theater previous to each performance. Tuesday the regular matinee will be given and a special holiday matinee on New Year's day.

The new edition of "She Couldn't Marry Three," which comes to the Grand opera house the last three days of this week, will be brimful of the songs of the day, dances, medleys, special scenery, mechanical and calcium light effects. The stage settings are marvels of beauty, and the play deals with the life of a little fisher girl on the coast of England. The story is true to life. Miss Lillian Kennedy, the star, is surrounded by a company of first-class artists. There will be matinees Friday and Saturday.

POLI'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

There are theatrical managers and there are theatrical managers. Some of them make a practice during the holiday season of providing "snide" attractions in their houses, and therefore many managers of traveling combinations prefer to lay off during the holidays altogether. This is the case with Hyde's Comedians this week, and Manager Poli, profiting from this fact, has secured the Newboys' Quintet as the star feature for the week at the Wonderland. Mr. Poli believes that the best is none too good for his patrons at any time of the year, holidays included, and he has not balked at the expense of bringing this great novelty to New Haven. The Newboys' Quintet is a most decided and unique novelty. They are five newboys whom Hyde & Behnam, the eminent vaudeville impresarios of Brooklyn, took and educated for the stage. In addition to them will appear a brilliant specialty company, including such distinguished artists as the great Newton, the phenomenal polyphonist from England, Mr. Harris and Miss Walters, Will F. Denny, Mr. White and Miss Granger, the Brown brothers, Miss Lizzie Johnston, the Sileberts, and Mr. Hyde and Miss Leola. It is a combination which is sure to give a most brilliant performance, and the Wonderland will be fully as attractive a place this week as it has been for the past month.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Captain Richard Peck, secretary of the New Haven Steamboat company, celebrated his eightieth birthday on Saturday. The genial and venerable commodore is in the enjoyment of excellent health and is a very active man for an octogenarian. Long may he live.

A dance is to be given by George Matthews of the senior class at Hill-house high school, Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. F. E. Hume will act as patronesses. About fifty invitations have been issued.

The annual ball of Aurora, N. 2, Patriarchs Militant, L. O. E. F., will be given on Wednesday evening, January 1, at Harugari hall, on Crown street. The music will be furnished by the Philharmonic orchestra and J. B. Freysinger will prompt.

Quite a number of small lots of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad stock have changed hands between 180-182. Transfer books will open on Thursday of this week.

New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad debentures are very steady in quotations. No large lots are offered and the demand is light. The stock, however, is slightly less in price, closing at 178 to 180.

Today Swift & Co. of Chicago send out checks for the quarterly dividend of 1 1/2 per cent.

On Tuesday the Boston and Albany railroad will pay 2 per cent. quarterly dividend. The Providence and Worcester railroad will pay 2 1/2 per cent. The transfer books of the Bell Telephone will close for a quarterly dividend of 3 per cent., and an extra dividend of 1 1/2 per cent., and Wells, Fargo & Co. express books close for a dividend of 2 per cent. on January 15.

On Wednesday the New Haven Gas Light company will pay a quarterly dividend of 2 1/2 per cent.

On Thursday stockholders of most of our local banks, the New Haven Water company, the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, the Naugatuck railroad, and Danbury and Norwalk railroad will receive dividends at the usual rates.

It will be good news to the holders of the Central Pacific railroad stock that even so small a dividend as one-half per cent. will be paid on January 2 on presentation of the proper coupon warrant.

An Enjoyable Smoker.
A smoker was given Saturday evening by Dr. L. M. Bishop at his residence, 71 Whalley avenue, in honor of James Flaherty, Harvard '98, who is spending his vacation in town. Light refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Among those present were James Flaherty, L. C. Oakley, Yale '96, Charles Clark, Mr. Weatherwax, ex-Councilman Beaulah, Mr. Kennerman and Mr. Connolly.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Benedict, wife of Mr. H. H. Benedict, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Maltby, widow of the late George E. Maltby, who are in Europe, have been enjoying a tour of some of the famous places in Germany. They will be there the greater part of a year. With them are their children, with the exception of the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Benedict, who is at Yale.

A REMOR.

Regarding the Consolidated Road. Middletown, Dec. 29.—It is freely rumored on the street here to-night that the Consolidated road is to immediately begin the building of a machine shop across the river in Portland in which they will employ 1,500 hands. The rumor comes from the impetus which has been given Middletown in a railroad way by making it a junction, and establishing it as a center for its fast five-hour trains.

The market is full of cough mixtures but one trouble with most of them is that when they do a little good the patient has to take so much that he gets to loathe the taste. The Pincola Balsam is superior to the cough remedies because it is agreeable to the palate and its good effects are immediate. In a few days an ordinary cough is gone altogether. Bronchitis and asthma are most stubborn, but they, too, are cured by Ely's Pincola Balsam. A remedy worth trying. Twenty-five cents is all it costs. 425 21/2
